

Unconditional

Freya Ridings

Stay with me, darling
Stay with me, darling
Let us lose ourselves in the moonlight
Lose ourselves
As we find

That there's nothing I could say
That would make you go away
No danger I was in
You wouldn't step in the way
I'm not alone anymore
This love's unconditional

Sway with me, darling
Just sway with me, darling
Let us lose ourselves in the moment
Lose ourselves
As we both find

There's nothing you could say
That would make me go away
No danger you were in
And I wouldn't step in the way
You're not alone anymore
'Cause this love's unconditional

Oh Lord, when will I breathe again?
And when will I stop smiling?
Somehow you made me believe again
That this is love

And this love's unconditional
Oh, this love's unconditional
This love's unconditional
