

Waking Up

Freya Ridings

I love you with open eyes
I need you not to understand
I'm trying it's the only way
I told you I can not be saved

I'm waking up
I can see it all
I'm waking up
Can I breathe, can I lie for you?
'Cause I know that you want me too
Let me breathe
Let me breathe

You know me, you know what I've done
You told me, sleep beautiful one
When only the moonlight shined
It hold me til my heart was numb

I'm waking up
I can feel it all
I'm waking up
I can breathe, I can lie for you
And I know that you want me too
Let me burn
Let me burn

Is it really end of you to love me like you do?
Is it really end of me, to stay asleep
Is it really end of you to love me like you do?
Is it really end of me, to stay asleep

I can see it all, I'm waking up
Can I breathe, can I lie for you?
But I know you want me too
And I know you want me too
