

One Little Lie

Frida

I hear the lines on the telegraph
Buzz in my head
I have to shut them out
My ears to the the ground
But I try to stand up
And straighten out
Forget mu doubts
?Cos I couldn?t bear to lose you
You?re the only one I care for
But I can?t lock out the rumours
I shut my eyes so I won?t see because

One little lie can go a long way
One little lie can go a long way
Would I learn to trust again some day

I try to ask but my tongue gets tied
When I guess the answer
If you turned you head away from me
I know I?d stand there forever
Caught out in time by line
That I wanted you to deny
And you?d laught and laugh ?til I cried and cried
I can?t shut out the rumours
Burning inside me all the time

One little lie can go a long way
One little lie can go a long way
Would I learn to trust again some day

Every day is turning away
I feel something new
If I can?t put my trust in you then
We?ve got nothing worth hanging on to
It?s hard to talk sometimes now
You seem so far away
Am I losing my mind
Oh Help me please
Say it?s not true what the people say
It hurts
In my heart
?Cos I couldn?t bear to lose you
You?re the only one I care for
But I can?t lock out the rumours
I shut my eyes so I won?t see because

One little lie can go a long way
One little lie can go a long way
Would I learn to trust again some day
