

We were young
But old enough to get high
Crazy enough to get by
And wild enough to fly
We were young
But old enough to reach dreams
Crazy as it seems
But still, you're in my dreams, oh

We know that it's only gonna be a matter of time
Before you change your mind
Like you change clothes
Why stop?
Right here
We both know
That I'll make it worth your while

'Cause you belong to the universe
Belong to the club tonight
Belong in my two seater, driving fast as light
Ooh, there's nothing that's stopping us
It's just like we're young in love
Don't care if we crash
Having the time of your life, life, life
Having the time of your life, life, life
Having the time of your
Having the time of your

It's a late night
Driving through your city, I'm Calling when I shouldn't be Right here where you want me to be
Girl, you got me caught up
Shifting through your bullshit
Trying to find a way out
Couldn't bring you down, down, down

Oh, 'cause you belong to the universe
Belong to the club tonight
Belong in my two seater, driving fast as light
Ooh, there's nothing that's stopping us
It's just like we're young in love
Don't care if we crash
Having the time of your life, life, life
Having the time of your life, life, life
Having the time of your
Having the time of your
Having the time of your life

Having the time of your
