

Without You

Fridayy

One last time, I get to see your face
Knowing you won't take your love away
Looking over your body, telling you to give me a sign
Standing right here, waiting on you to open your eyes

Oh, could this be the last time that I get to hold your hand?
I'm breaking down, I hear you telling me to be a man
You know I ain't shit without you, how could you leave me all alone?
I'm going far away, 'cause without you, there's no home

Oh-oh, so, tell me, what do I do?
I'm nothing without you
Tell me, what do I do?
I'm nothing without you

I see your face every time I close my eyes
I feel you with me when I cry at night
I'm holding on, 'bout to lose my mind
Can you help me?

I hear your voice every time the crowd clears out
I'm on the stage, but I'm stalling out
I'm in the deep end, I'm sinking now
Can you save me?

Oh, feeling all this pain inside, I need something that can heal me
Girl, my heart is getting cold, baby, can you hold me?
Oh-oh, and don't let go, oh, baby, hold me close
I don't know where to go, 'cause without you, there's no home

Oh-oh, so, tell me, what do I do?
I'm nothing without you, oh
Oh-oh, so, tell me, what do I do?
I'm nothing without you
