

Dive Into Your Eyes

Friendly Fires

It's like the trees are breathing
Flowers blooming
It's too beautiful to be saying goodbye
On a day like this
Crystal waters
On untouched beaches
It's too beautiful to be saying goodbye
On a day like this

Call me up
Waiting for the breakup
As you call me up
Waiting for the breakup
When you turn around
And look at me in that way
Time is running out
When you look at me in that way

I dive into your eyes
One last time
I don't know why
It feels like I'm drowning
I dive into your eyes
One last time
I don't know why
It feels like I'm drowning
I dive into your eyes

Endless sunsets
On boundless oceans
It's too beautiful
To be saying goodbye
On a day like this

Call me up
Waiting for the breakup
As you call me up
Waiting for the breakup
When you turn around
And look at me in that way
Time is running out
When you look at me in that way

I dive into your eyes
One last time
I don't know why
It feels like I'm drowning
I dive into your eyes
One last time
I don't know why
It feels like I'm drowning

I dive into your eyes
One last time
I don't know why
It feels like I'm drowning
I dive into your eyes

One last time
I don't know why
It feels like I'm drowning
I dive into your eyes
