

I feel like going offline
Breaking bad habits, one at a time
I think it's worth another try
Got a new direction, aim for the sky

Made me found some reason, I've been so wild
I can do this, I can see through this
Maybe there's a reason it's been playing on my mind

No more waiting for a hope
Must be worth another try
No more waiting for a hope
Must be worth another try
No more waiting for a hope

Feel like stepping outside
No more bad vibrations waving goodbye
There's a world I need to find
Leading smoke and mirrors it's in your life

Music is one thing truly to make mine
I can do this, I can see through this
It's becoming clearer to me with open eyes

No more waiting for a
No more waiting for a hope
No more waiting for a hope
Must be worth another try
No more waiting for a hope
No more waiting for a hope
No more waiting for a hope
Must be worth another try
No more waiting for

I can't experience the power of moments
Only complete if I feel it in real life
It's only complete if I feel it in real life

No more waiting for a hope
No more waiting, yeah
Must be worth another try
No more waiting for a hope
Must be worth another try
No more waiting for a hope
Feel it in real life
No more waiting for a hope
Must be worth another try
No more waiting for
