

I'm His Girl

Friends

When you see me walking around with him I'm not just another chick, I'm his girl
When you see me walking around with him I'm not just another chick, I'm his girl

And I could be proud that I'm his girl Cause I know that I'm good all by myself
See I don't need his love, I really want him, right And he can feel good that he's my guy Cause he knows he doesn't mean that he's just mine I don't wanna own him or control him
I just want ...

So when you see me walking around with him I'm not just another chick, I'm his girl
When you see me walking around with him I'm not just another chick, I'm his girl

When you see me walking around with him I'm not just another chick he picked up
For a walk around, he's gonna put back down again

I'm the one he loves and trust He goes out on the town I don't get jealous It's all about affection of possession with us And I do exactly what I want, when I'm with him, and when I'm not He's not domineering, just endearing, what we got So if you love someone, let them be free I know I don't want no one, suffocating me Don't settle for ownership, make it deep If you love someone, you should feel good to let them breathe,

So when you see me walking around with him I'm not just another chick, I'm his girl
When you see me walking around with him I'm not just another chick, I'm his girl.
