

Already Gone

From Ashes to New

Sitting all alone in a room reminiscing
Locked away from the world in a prison
I wish that I could open up
This life has left me numb
Beneath my feet I feel the ground and it's caving
In and out sinking down and I'm fading
I know that I've had enough, had enough

It's like getting knocked down
When you're living at the bottom
It's like hitting the ground
And you've never felt so broken
It's taking over me, take, taking over me
So where did I go wrong?
It's like getting knocked down
When you're living at the bottom
Am I already gone?

How can I breathe when my heartbeat is missing
Yeah, I'm alive but I know I ain't living
I wish someone would wake me up
This nightmare left me numb
In my dreams I am lost and I'm faceless
I'll never see through the dark and I hate it
I know that I have had enough, had enough

It's like getting knocked down
When you're living at the bottom
It's like hitting the ground
And you've never felt so broken
It's taking over me, take, taking over me
So where did I go wrong?
It's like getting knocked down
When you're living at the bottom
Am I already gone?

No I can't live this way
(There's nothing left, nothing left)
And now I can't escape
(I hold my breath, hold my breath)
Until I feel alive
(Can't get ahead, get ahead)
But I'm so far behind
No, (there's nothing left, nothing left)
I wanna feel alive

It's like getting knocked down
When you're living at the bottom

It's like getting knocked down
When you're living at the bottom
It's like hitting the ground
And you've never felt so broken
It's taking over me, take, taking over me
So where did I go wrong?
It's like getting knocked down
When you're living at the bottom

Am I already gone?

Am I already gone?
