

Enough

From Ashes to New

Some days I feel you put me in a place
In a position where I up and walk away
But I couldn't stay cuz I know nothing would've changed
There's nothing left of us hiding under all the hate
Now I'm doubting the quality of a dream
We're at each other's throats it's never clean
I reminisce in all that it used to be
Instead of the anxiety hovering over me

Get out
Get away from me
I need room to breathe
Right now
Give me room to breath
Suffocating me

Something inside me
Feels like it's dying
I'm tired of fighting
Now I've had enough
Torn into pieces
By my own demons
Maybe I need this
Now I've had enough

I feel sick thinking about the night
We both felt we wouldn't make it out alive
Now I'm hopeless and I'm looking how to find
Myself in the bottom of a bottle I'm out of time
I don't mean to be so damn negative
But I'm sick of seeing life through a faded lens
And even if we had time to make amends
We both know it won't change the way it ends

Get out
Get away from me
I need room to breathe
Right now
Give me room to breath
Suffocating me

Something inside me
Feels like it's dying
I'm tired of fighting
Now I've had enough
Torn into pieces
By my own demons
Maybe I need this
Now I've had enough

I'm letting go of all it used to be
Letting go of the hold it has on me
Let it go let it die
It's the only way we'll make it out alive

Something inside me
Feels like it's dying

I'm tired of fighting
Now I've had enough
Torn into pieces
By my own demons
Maybe I need this
Now I've had enough
