From Fall To Spring

My brain is fucked up, I'll go insane
I find myself desperate to feel again
It's fucking sad, my heart is dead
I'm going after the enemies inside my head
This world is fucked up, I can't believe
How many have died from simplicity
You're on the streets, raging in disbelief
But the truth is the cure and the remedy

So you take your life for granted
In a heartbeat, it's cancelled
Don't you think you're the one who's the cancer?
Running wild from disaster
Go check your graves for the answer

My brain is fucked up, I'll go insane
No end in sight, you're the one to blame
I'm in the heat of a dying flame
No end in sight, you're the one to blame
You're shattering all of our lives
And hurting yourself in delight (You're to blame)
Not fooling me twice with your lies, oh no
My brain is fucked up, I'll go insane

In a world full of murderers
Warning goes out to the ones of us closing their eyes
From the horrible things that became part of all of our lives
See the difference in all of these lies in the way that were all to alike
We can't sleep, lie awake every night, with constant fear in our eyes
Don't be fooled by anyone!
There is nor was there ever a bigger plan for us all
So shut your mouth and use your head once in a while
It would be best, cannot lie
Cause sooner or later we are all gonna die

Second after second see the world be filled with renegades
Before it's all too late
I need to set things straight
Minute after minute running out and still we need to hate
And I'm about to faint
Tell me can you relate?

My brain is fucked up, I'll go insane
No end in sight, you're the one to blame
I'm in the heat of a dying flame
No end in sight, you're the one to blame
You're shattering all of our lives
And hurting yourself in delight (You're to blame)
Not fooling me twice with your lies, oh no
My brain is fucked up, I'll go insane

My brain is fucked up, I'll go insane
I find myself desperate to feel again
It's fucking sad, my heart is dead
I'm going after the enemies inside my head
My brain is fucked up, I'll go insane
No end in sight, you're the one to blame

I'm in the heat of a dying flame
No end in sight, you're the one to blame
You're shattering all of our lives
And hurting yourself in delight (You're to blame)
Not fooling me twice with your lies, oh no

You're shattering all of our lives
And hurting yourself in delight
Not fooling me twice with your lies and I know
Times up your show is over
