

Draw The Line

From Fall To Spring

I draw the line

Broke out and I'm planning on my revenge
Slow down better think of the consequence
No doubt all that's left is my confidence
You're so incompetent
I know where this will end

Nah

You talked shit and then ran away
Took me a minute to digest but I can't complain
Cause you showed me all the ways I don't want to be
And now I'm counting down the days till you gotta pay

I draw the line
I draw the line

I died inside
Here I draw the line
Rewind
Never gonna kill me in time
(Nobody draw the line)
Wild eyed, I'm alive
Here I draw the line
Rewind
Never gonna kill me in time
This is where I draw the line!

Face down I was losing my identity
For too long I was someone I don't want to be
Deep down all you felt was hate and jealousy
And now I take the crown
I'm ending your supremacy

Nah

You talked shit and then ran away
Took me a minute to digest but I can't complain
Cause you showed me all the ways I don't want to be
And now I'm counting down the days till you gotta pay

I draw the line
I draw the line

I died inside
Here I draw the line
Rewind
Never gonna kill me in time
(Nobody draw the line)
Wild eyed, I'm alive
Here I draw the line
Rewind
Never gonna kill me in time
This is where I draw the line!

I'll never listen to a single fucking word you say
I'll do it my way

You're dead wrong (nah)
Get lost
You will never bring me down
I won't
Listen to you again
Dead wrong
You'll never break me
Dead wrong
You'll never change me
Dead wrong
You'll never break me down

I died inside
Here I draw the line
Rewind
Never gonna kill me in time
(Nobody draw the line)
Wild eyed, I'm alive
Here I draw the line
Rewind
Never gonna kill me in time
This is where I draw the line!

I draw, I draw the line, line!
