

I WON'T BACK DOWN

From Fall To Spring

I won't back down

Been running for ages
Can't flip the pages
I cannot reach the finish line
Fuck all limitations
I'm out of patience
It's time that I leave it all behind

Bury all the lies
Push against the tide
What I've found cannot be washed away
Finally alive
The fire in my eyes
Reignited, now it's here to stay

I won't back down
I'll stand strong
Fight until I make it
Even if you hate it

I won't back down
I'll stand strong
Fight until I make it
Even if you hate it

I won't back down
Won't play along
Broken generations
Exceed expectations
I won't back down

Stronger than ever
No more under pressure
Guess all I needed was some time
No more second-guessing
It feels like a blessing
It's time that I leave it all behind
Out of my way
Your hypocrisy drives me crazy
Out of my way
I will break free

I won't back down
I'll stand strong
Fight until I make it
Even if you hate it
I won't back down
Won't play along
Broken generations
Exceed expectations
I won't back down

(I won't back down)
Been running for ages
Can't flip the pages

No limitations
I'm out of patience
Time that I leave it all behind
Through all the stages
No hesitation
I can almost see the finish line
Fuck limitations
Rip out the pages

Out of my way
Your hypocrisy drives me crazy
Ahh

I won't back down
I'll stand strong
Fight until I make it
Even if you hate it

I won't back down
Won't play along
Broken generations
Exceed expectations

Running for ages
Rip out the pages
I cannot reach the finish line
No hesitation
Time that I leave it all behind

Fuck all limitations
I'm so out of patience
Fight until I make it
Even if you hate it
