... And We All Have a Hell

From First to Last

Every day gets worse,

Locked in a vice my thoughts perverse

You must wonder why I look at you that way (that way)

Tonight I'll make my way into your house

I must; I'm lusting for your body

Skin looks tight, think I just might have

To take a bite, but I know one will turn

To three or four or more my little whore

Tonight, tonight she's not alone (can you taste the wicked in the room?) Bobbysoxer, so pure, so young By morning her soul will be gone, gone.

I did a beautiful thing,
Relax baby, that's a good girl
You're like my work of art
I can control, I can contort any Position that I wish,
I make my fantasy reality
Hold still, it will be over soon

Tonight, tonight she's not alone (can you taste the wicked in the room?)
Bobbysoxer, so pure, so young
By morning her soul will be gone, gone, gone, gone.

I blend with the walls so I won't be seen My love, you smell so..
I took one good look,
I followed you home

Tonight, tonight she's not alone (can you taste the wicked in the room?) Bobbysoxer, so pure, so young By morning her soul will be gone
