

We All Turn Back to Dust

From First to Last

Little soul,
Your dreams are waiting,
Grab them up,
Hold them closely,
Never let go,
Never let go.

Little soul,
You're finally here to live and breathe,
Your every fear of love and hate,
Smile and touch,
Hope, despair,
Loathing and lust.

Who we are,
What we all are,
It's nothing but a point of view
(Who we are)
It's nothing but a point of view

Life's waiting here for me,
But I keep pushing away,
And I'm left alone here wondering,
Is there more to this?,
More than the stars above,
Our heads and earth beneath our feet.

If you will it, there is no chain.

Who we are,
What we all are,
It's nothing but a point of view
(Who we are)
It's nothing but a point of view

Who we are,
What we all are,
It's nothing but a point of view
(Who we are)
It's nothing but a point of view

We all turn back to dust.
(Back to dust) (Back to the beginning)
We all burn back to dust.
(Back to dust) (Back to the beginning)

(Back to the beginning)

Little soul,
Your dreams are waiting,
Grab them up,
Take them with you,
Never let go,
Never let go.

Who we are,
What we all are,

It's nothing but a point of view
(Who we are)
It's nothing but a point of view

Who we are,
What we all are,
It's nothing but a point of view
(Who we are)
It's nothing but a point of view
