

louder
if you have got something to say harder confidence won't stand in the way faster
is it really all that you've got?
you need a vision eternal bliss if you wanna be like others be like others

wasting all the time like others milions others

this is the very last time you stuck yourself in it warm yourself up in a very though city
you won't survive
unless you know the little trick just fool yourself that the world is pretty

what if i have nothing to say liar
what if i cant stomach the pain coward
is it really all that you've got?
so keep your vision for someone else
