

A broken picture stares at you on the wall. Fading memories on how you lost it all. Now you know that you are all alone. Your time has gone in this hopeless song.

Today begins, tomorrow never ends.

Loneliness, humans emotions of parody. Forgiveness, the only thing to set you free. Honesty, is everything you are to me. Needing, where everyone wants to be.

What have I done with all this hurt to end like this in the frozen dirt? You give your heart, your heart and soul to me. This burning flame you hold next to me.

Today begins, tomorrow never ends.

Loneliness, humans emotions of parody. Forgiveness, the only thing to set you free. Honesty, is everything you are to me. Needing where everyone wants to be.

Denying, we try to find our destiny. Serenity, decent from grace, a silent plea. We walk in silence, we fade away. We walk in silence, nothing left to say. Unfold our hands, we slip away.

We fall apart, we drift away. It's over now, it's over now. A ghostly limb, it's over now. We slip away, we slip away. We slip away, we slip away.
