

Pressure Wave

Front Line Assembly

One Voice, One World,
it's time the masses are heard Sever attacks, paralyzed flesh, faint chance, public unrest, Poison globe corps decay no final message, pressure wave.

No fading signal
whats done is done
grab your weapons and start to run.

A torrent cloud of massive gray,
reigns down terror of
chemical pain.
This lifeless city,
dissolves to rust,
no life forms left,
what happened to us?

The future is now,
there's no way back,
internal bleeding,
generic crack despair
and sickness is all we have,
no more illusion,
of fighting back.

A torrent cloud of massive gray,
reigns down terror of
chemical pain.
This lifeless city,
dissolves to rust,
no life forms left,
what happened to us?
