

Vexation

Front Line Assembly

All you do is see it through
Your ego stands in front of you
Your head keeps turning to one side
And yet you try to hide your foolish pride
Visions all caught up inside
Yet you still try to hide
Twisted visions in your head
You lay there wishing you were dead
Adrenaline flows inside your head
Inside it keeps you high
Adrenaline flows inside your head
Inside it keeps you high
Round and round your body goes
Your state of violence no one knows
No emotions left inside
Superiour flash of genocide
Adrenaline flows inside your head
Inside it keeps you high
Round and round your body goes
Your state of violence no one knows
Superiour flash of genocide
All the thoughts locked in your head
Twisted visions come instead
All you do is see it through
Your ego stands in front of you
Adrenaline flows inside your head
Inside it keeps you high
Adrenaline flows inside your head
Inside it keeps you high
Round and round your body goes
Your state of violence no one knows
All the thoughts locked in your head
Twisted visions come instead
All you do is see it through
Your ego stands in front of you
Adrenaline flows inside your head
Inside it keeps you high
Your head keeps turning to one side
And yet you try to hide your foolish pride
Visions all caught up inside
Yet you still try to hide
Adrenaline flows inside your head
Inside it keeps you high
Adrenaline flows inside your head
Inside it keeps you high
Adrenaline flows inside your head
Inside it keeps you high
