

They Still Talk

Fronzilla

Always on my grind and yet they still talk shit
I give bitches all my time and yet they still talk shit
I give them silent treatment and yet they still talk shit
Nothings ever what it seems and yeah they still talk shit

Get up, yeah, they still talk shit
Hatin' on my golden wrist and even hatin' on my whips but Karma is a bitch and your vibes are always wrong
I'll give it another week and your bitch will sing my song
Sayin'

Always on my grind and yet they still talk shit
I give bitches all my time and yet they still talk shit
I give them silent treatment and yet they still talk shit
Nothings ever what it seems and yeah they still talk shit

Hold up, I don't wanna talk about it
I just want to be about it
If you know what it is then you got to be givin' it up
Givin' it up for me

Runnin' your mouth like a full time job
Wait, hold up, you ain't got no job
You're a fucking slob
I'ma stay on top
And this shit don't stop
You can suck my cock
No matter where I go I'ma drop that flame
Flyin' over your country I dont play that game
You can be a fucking hater but that shit's insane
Before this is done, you're gonna know my name

Always on my grind and yet they still talk shit
I give bitches all my time and yet they still talk shit
I give them silent treatment and yet they still talk shit
Nothings ever what it seems and yeah they still talk shit

Always on my grind and yet they still talk shit
I give bitches all my time and yet they still talk shit
I give them silent treatment and yet they still talk shit
Nothings ever what it seems and yeah they still talk shit

Put your hands up
If this is your fuckin' anthem
At this time next year I'll be cruisin' in my Phantom
You should watch your back because your bitch told me I'm handsome
I said "shut the fuck up, listen to my song and put your hands up"

Always on my grind and yet they still talk shit
I give bitches all my time and yet they still talk shit
I give them silent treatment and yet they still talk shit
Nothings ever what it seems and yeah they still talk shit

Hold up, I don't wanna talk about it
I just want to be about it
If you know what it is then you got to be givin' it up
Givin' it up for me

Runnin' your mouth, go and put up a front
I'ma kick back and roll up a blunt
Hittin' marijuana solid don't ruin the bud
I'm a bad motherfucker and you just a nun
Up on my hustle, yeah I love to grind
Hatin' cause you're basic, get in the line
Ask me a question, I won't decline
I got one destination, dollar sign

Always on my grind and yet they still talk shit
I give bitches all my time and yet they still talk shit
I give them silent treatment and yet they still talk shit
Nothings ever what it seems and yeah they still talk shit

Always on my grind and yet they still talk shit
I give bitches all my time and yet they still talk shit
I give them silent treatment and yet they still talk shit
Nothings ever what it seems and yeah they still talk shit

Fuckin' crazy how life works sometimes
It's like no matter what you do
People are still gonna talk shit
Fuck them
