

Trapped

Fronzilla

Let's talk about bases, yeah, cuz everybody's got one
Tell me all your problems, I'll review them while I roll a blunt
Sippin' on this simple chronic psychedelic uppercut
Let's erase our problems and pretend that you don't give a fuck
I feel like I'm trapped inside a dungeon or a jail cell
Someone break me out before I break shit and go raise hell
You'd be angry too if people criticized your artwork
Now that I'm asleep I can unleash my mental shit-storm
