

A Táltos

Frost*

"Elgyszer még eljövök
A végtelen fekete egén
Mikor a Hold és a Nap együttáll
Hogy elhozzom Nektek az örök sötétséget"

I'll see the fire, the flaming fire
In the depths, when the burning nightfall
Will come at the last sunset

I'm flying in trance toward the seven
Levels of the sky, my soul hits on
The ancient prophecy in the dark hollows
Of depths.
Listen to my words!

"I will come again to bring you the Ever darkness through the sky of the Endless black when the Moon
And the Sun
Will be in one line"

I don't want to see the burning sun again
The Moon is to burn forever during the Black night in order to cover the whole
World with it's light
It's children, the stars, will wink at Me with sleepy light when
My soul is going to retire again
If it retires for good...
Be huge and ever, oh ancient ghost
Light the fire, the flaming fire in the Depths when the burning nightfall is Going to come at the last sunset
