

Edge Of Reality

Frozen Crown

Fast as a shooting star
Flying till the point of no return
Let's seize the time
Black as the falling night
Blades are clashing on this sacred ground
The final battle starts

I was doomed to see the fall of all men
And my precious was not spared
Was left to grieve holding her vest
And crying to the wind her name

I will wait on the edge of reality
For your comeback
Where, through waking and dreams
Close yet far away
I will hear your voice once more

Fight, as the time has come
In the end there can be only one
Embrace the night
Life after life we crossed
Centuries to battle to the last
The Gathering begins

I chased the wind against the tide
In hope I could turn back time
The shore I reached a handful of sand
Slipping through my hourglass

I will wait on the edge of reality
For your comeback
Where, through waking and dreams
Close yet far away
I will hear your voice once more

I will wait on the edge of reality
For your comeback
Where, through waking and dreams
Close yet far away
I will hear your voice once more
