

Legion

Frozen Crown

Wrath in the kingdom of fear
The armies raging through blood and ice
Clashing the swords and the shields
The final battle has just begun

We won't be humans anymore
We left our souls out there before the dawn
But still we're stronger than we were
Marching on the white fields of glory

We were too far, no turning back
Together, ready to strike

This battle rages on for ages
Born as a legion of steel
Over the mountains and snowy fields
Our crowning is coming

Flashing the blades in the wind
As darkness fades in beyond the moon
Tempted by blood and dismay
Feeding on demons under the moon

The wolves are joining our fight
As snow is getting red their eyes shine brighter
Flesh and power we last for Fighting on the bright fields of ice

We've got so far up to the edge of heaven
Ready to strike

This battle rages on for ages
Born as a legion of steel
Over the mountains and snowy fields
Our crowning is coming

This battle rages on for ages
Born as a legion of steel
Over the mountains and snowy fields
Our crowning is coming
