

On Silver Wings

Frozen Crown

I've been trying to find my way out of this place
As too many years of endless rain have passed
No reason to stay
I would leave if I could fly away

As winter was coming
Answers came with the snow
What I spent my whole life waiting for
Was the fire inside of me

The storm you seek
Is raging on from within
Open your heart to the wind of time
On silver wings
Bending the air at your will
Changing the rules as you please

New life, I am here to stay
Day after day
I'm forging my new world again
Might in my hands
Fire in my eyes
I'm falling in to break

The mirrors of destiny
As power lies in today
I will show you the way if you stay with me
Through this flight to infinity

The storm you seek
Is raging on from within
Open your heart to the wind of time
On silver wings
Bending the air at your will
Changing the rules as you please

The storm you seek
Is raging on from within
Open your heart to the wind of time
On silver wings
Bending the air at your will
Changing the rules as you please
