

Black Spells

Frozen Dawn

I feel the embrace of the winter
As I'm casting black spells
Spells that freeze my heart
Unleashing magical powers

I feel my soul cold
Cold into an ice coffin
Frozen for all times
Hallowed by dark cries
Into the heart of the woods
In the middle of Winterland

Powers of ancient majesty
Brought back by winter winds
Wicked spells by winter light forged in blood and pain

To worship you, goddess of night
Queen of the winter and ice
