

Age After Age

Frozen Plasma

Hold fast to your dreams
Soon they will die
Life is a broken a broken-winged bird
Who always will try but never will fly?
Who never will fly?
And never get heard

Hold fast to your dreams
For when dreams will go
Life is a barren field frozen with snow
Which never will feed any kind of hope
Any kind of hope
No place to lie low

Hold fast to your dreams
They won't come true
And if you think your life is under control
And you don't know how high to rise
How high to rise
Until you fall

Hold fast to your dreams
As strong as you can
Reality fights against you every day

Trying to break your hope apart
Your hope apart
And leave you astray

Life after life
And age after age
Timorous soul
Wide awake
Life after life
And age after age
Sun beaten path
Which way to take
Life after life
And age after age
When do we start to believe
Life after life
And age after age
Name fame or love
What to achieve

Life after life
And age after age
Life after life
And age after age
When do we start to believe
Life after life
And age after age
Name fame or love
What to achieve
