

King Of Pain

Frozen Plasma

the king of pain
i am today
life in my veins
has gone away
indifferent thoughts
and vanished tears
in great distress
of all my fears
divides my heart
sorrunding me
this troubled mind
it won't be tamed
the ticking clocks
i beg and plead
and we all think we'll live forever

the king of pain
i am today
my destiny
this seems to be
the things i loved
the times i've laughed
the tears i've cried
the friends who passed
they won't return
they won't come back
my memory fades
their image black
just one more touch
just one more smile
and we all think we'll live forever

these thousand thrills won't last forever you'll see the truth is what lies beneath embrace my soul
and bring the light back to me that's burning inside of me
