

Saving This Moment

Frozen Plasma

I live, I die, I burn, I drown
Upon this ground
Upon this ground
There is silence where no sound should be
Where cloudy shadows wander free
Upon this ground
Upon this ground

Our endless fight remains undone
The time shall come
The time shall come
To tilt the weapons in retreat
To lift the curtain of defeat
The time shall come
The time shall come

The great reward, the final stand
Bound in my hands
Bound in my hands
No limitation, time to run
In inspiration we are one
Bound in my hands
Bound in my hands

Passion's the path that brought me here
Devotion was concealed
Open your eyes, behold this life
See the truth revealed
All of the answers I can give
Are phrases you already know
Words of the purest kind
A true rewind
Saving this moment for me
