

Arctic Stranglehold

Frozen Soul

Waves of frost engulf the lands sweeping the earth
Winds cut through cold as ice death is brought forth
Kings of old they take what's theirs
Stomping and crushing you plead for air

Recycled waste feeds the earth your life is claimed a cold rebirth
Your warmth is seized your blood will freeze a world reset on your knees

Your warmth is seized your blood will freeze a world reset guaranteed

Waves of frost engulf the lands sweeping the earth
Winds cut through cold as ice death is brought forth
Kings of old take what's theirs
Stomping and crushing you plead for air

World wiped clean free of scum
Frozen wasteland your time has come
Purge through pain, a glacial reign
Ruthless, cold, arctic stranglehold
Ruthless, Cold, arctic stranglehold
