

Faceless Enemy

Frozen Soul

Brave through, take control, fight back to survive
Regain your warmth, uncloud your eyes
Then you will see
The self-made prophecy
Made not of flesh
A faceless enemy
Push ahead, through the dead, souls embed
Sunk alive, fate contrived, life deprived
Just inhale, no avail, you won't prevail
Hold your breath, save your heat, pray for help, just try to

A faceless enemy
Push ahead, through the dead, souls embed
Sunk alive, fate contrived, life deprived
Just inhale, no avail, you won't prevail
Hold your breath, save your heat, pray for death, just pray for death

Face to face with your fall from grace
As you descend you meet a cold embrace
