Spaceboy

Fruit Bats

Feel it break your bones, Mr. Jones
Taste me as I bleed, taste my need
Spaceboy, I've missed you spinning round my head
And any way you choose me, you'll break instead

Watch me death defy, defile my life
I don't need, I don't care please
I want to go home
I want to go home
'Cause when a lover aches
'Cause when a lover breaks
I want to go home
I want to go home

And Spaceboy, they'll kill me before I'm dead and gone
Any way you choose me, it won't be wrong
We won't belong
We won't belong
We won't belong
We won't belong
