I tightly hold onto my heart but I tremble when I see her
My heart shakes like it's going to fall off
I can see just her among countless people
This must be love at first sight

Even when our eyes meet, my breath stops
If she looks and smiles at me, I become dizzy dizzy
There's no girl prettier than her in the world
I must have fallen for her

Everywhere bing bing bing bing bang bang bang bang she spins around
If I have only one love, I'll give it to her
I must be nice
The Heavens sent her for me

Please hold my hand tightly. I feel drunk.
I'm dizzy dizzy at your sweet voice
Now that we've exchanged greetings, we have come half away
I'm going to love

All day bing bing bing bing bang bang bang bang I hang around
I loiter hoping I see her by chance
I will see her tonight and confess my love

Everywhere bing bing bing bing bang bang bang bang she spins around
If I have only one love, I'll give it to her
I guess I'm nice
The Heavens sent her for me

Everywhere bing bing bing bing bang bang bang bang she spins around
All day bing bing bing bing bang bang bang bang I'm dizzy
All day bing bing bing bing bang bang bang bang I hang around
I loiter hoping I see her by chance
I will see her tonight and confess my love
