Modoranai, to shiri nagara
Ima mo mada, soledemo

My past summer with you
It came without you here
It disappears while Fireworks are floating in

I only wants is freedom
So lonely while looking at my hand
I know I/m selfish
If you know it
Then my heart is in pain

I can't come back nor knowing it
Even now, still
We're continuing to wait
What remains us here
Winter will coming soon
It will be frozen
Spring won't come...always

For the first time I can't feel you
I learned the meaning of warmth
The bitterness of living
Is what I won't forget

From there, you're watching me
I wonder if I can move ahead
With these needles
Probably in a common place

I'm sure, I'll be able to laugh
With someone else

Forever
I won't forget, I
For my sake, it's not love
I won't let go
It's in my empty arm
It will never disappear
Those memories I'm holding on

I can't come back nor knowing it
Even now, still
We're continuing to wait
What remains us here
Winter will coming soon
It will be frozen
Spring won't come...always
