The rain doesn't stop,
It makes the windows cloudy,
The drops spill and stream down.
I could have said that you are my everything,
But it's too late now.

After a little while
Every single thing becomes a memory.
Maybe I can be reborn too.

Seasons change over and over again.
To the new me I say "Hello".
For this trivial Accident
I can't stop crying.
To you who are still far away
I say goodbye and turn the corner.
Oh Hu Oh Hu I can't wait to
Be alright again Hu Go now

Memories are stabbing my chest,
The overwhelming pain is Endless;
I close my eyes and just endure it.
I still can't get rid of your habit
Of watching the morning horoscope.

When I look up, the rain
That was soaking the city has stopped.
I found a very beautiful flower of light.

I'll stand up again and again, and
To the coward me I Say "Good bye".
It was too cruel of you
To laugh at my crying Face.
I wonder what will fill
My empty heart from now on.
Oh Hu Oh Hu I'm going to be myself
God bless me Hu

Oh Oh Brand new my life Say 'Hello'
Go now, to the post-rain city Oh yeah
I'll make my start
As soon as tomorrow begins.
