Howling, unstoppable noise

It's killing me, I block my ears

Between the boundaries of light and shadow, I'm searching for the answer

No turning back. It's like I'm wandering around hopelessly, lighting up the future

The colours that was painted repeatedly, is it Black or white?

What is the meaning of life?

Just by looking up, it can't be described. I want to see the story

We carry on Oh Oh Oh The nameless shadows shakes up the heartbeat

Get ready for Oh Oh Oh Go through the darkness, till I've reached that place

Nothing but, there is nothing to be scared of

Knocking on new gate, Let's go to another world

Oh Oh Oh the awaken shadows, Drench in the light

Doubting each other, colliding with each other

Between your answer to your own questions. Between the gap of impulses and irritation, it overlaps into one

The exact same Shadow and Light

The hurting impulse, the screaming shadows

The black and white on the sheet music

Though they all make a different sound

The mixed together heartbeats makes it all become one

We carry on Oh Oh Oh The hope in my heart light up the endless trip

Get ready for Oh Oh Oh Reach out your hand. Promise never end

I'll be there in this chaotic world

Putting on a black wing, spreading to the next world

Oh Oh Oh Fly off shadows, to the light ahead

At that time, that light that's about to disappear

Your faith that you're protecting, your hope, I'll Carry on

We carry on Oh Oh Oh The nameless shadows shakes up the heartbeat

Get ready for Oh Oh Oh Go through the darkness, till I've reached that place

Nothing but, there is nothing to be scared of

Knocking on new gate, Let's go to another world

Oh Oh Oh the awaken shadows, Drench in the light
