My heart is slowly tingling
At your cute and innocent image oh
Whenever I come across you
I become awkward for no reason
I keep getting curious about everything about you
Every night I dream a dream of my own oh
What would it be like if you became my lover
And I finally confess my hidden love for you now

I hope you will be my lover
I hope you will be my one and only love
Please only tell me
Your confessions of love

I hope you will be my lover
I hope you will stay by my side
Wherever you go, whatever you do
I hope you will only think of me

I have a lot of feelings to show you but
I don't know how I should begin oh
My heart is impatient for no reason
So even if I seem awkward, please accept my confession

I hope you will be my lover
I hope you will be my one and only love
Please only tell me
Your confessions of love

I hope you will be my lover

I hope you will stay by my side
Wherever you go, whatever you do
I hope you will only think of me

I pray that I become your lover

Promise me that you'll be my lover
Promise me that you'll be my one and only love
Please whisper love to me sweetly like chocolate

Promise me that you will become my lover
Do everything together with me
The first and the last
Our love together
