

So Far Behind

Fu Manchu

Those lies you despise that you read in the book
Year after year all the time that you took
In on the rock for the hundredth time
You'll get yours and I'll get mine

And I'm so far behind
Making my way, taking my time
So far behind
I was wrong, you were right
So far behind
Making my way, taking my time
I never been these lose before
I'm still so far behind

You learn the rules, time and place
Bearing down deep like the lies on your face
Out on the corner soon they are gone
Year after year it goes on and on

And I'm so far behind
Making my way, taking my time
So far behind
I was wrong, you were right
So far behind
Making my way, taking my time
I never been these lose before
I'm still so far behind

I heard the sound, I saw the sun
I read the word, every line
Another day another night
You keep searching
You gonna find

(So far) So far behind!
Making my way!
(So far) So far behind!
Making my way!
(So far) So far behind!
Making my way!
