Pulled it all in closer
Then pushed it all away
Hold it down for closure
But the longing never fades
So quick to turn
And quick to run
But she says you silly fool
When will you ever learn?

If you wanna get love
You got to give love away
If you wanna get love
You got to let somebody in
If you wanna get love
You got to give love away
If you wanna get love
You got to let somebody in

She says for half your life
You just shoved it down
So why are you confused
Now love can't be found
The revolving door
The unfinished page
She says, you must get so tired
Just swimming against the waves

'Cause if you wanna get love
You got to give love away
If you wanna get love
You got to let somebody in
If you wanna get love
You got to give love away
If you wanna get love
You got to let somebody in

If you wanna get love
You got to give love away
If you wanna get love
You got to let somebody in
If you wanna get love
You got to give love away
If you wanna get love
You got to let somebody in
