

Knives

Fuel

Give me one good reason
To why you're so blind
I covered your back again
And you'd better cover mine

If I turned and walked aay
Would you stick your knives in me
How much longer til you break
Until I walk away, walk away from you

Give me one good reason
To why you're so unkind
You know I believe, believe it's true
You know I believe in you

If I turned and walked aay
Would you stick your knives in me
How much longer til you break
Until I walk away, walk away from you
