

Mary Pretends

Fuel

Mary pretends she's so insane
So insane, so insane
Mary pretends she's so insane
So insane, so insane

She just sits back and laughs at the pain
Laughs at the pain, laughs at the pain
Mary pretends she's so insane
So insane, so insane

Falling down of her mind
Gives her everything she's wanted from the world
Close her eyes, drift inside, so alive

She's gotta know what it feels like
She wants to know how to fly
She wants to know what it feels like to die
Goodbye

Mary pretends she's so insane
So insane, so insane
Mary pretends she's so insane
So insane, so insane

She just sits back and laughs at the pain
Laughs at the pain, laughs at the pain
Mary pretends she's so insane
So insane, so insane

Falling down of her mind
Gives her everything she's wanted from the world
Close her eyes, drift inside, so alive

She's gotta know what it feels like
She wants to know how to fly
She wants to know what it feels like to die
Goodbye

Falling down of her mind
Gives her everything she's wanted from the world
Close her eyes, drift inside, so alive

She's gotta know what it feels like
She wants to know how to fly
She wants to know what it feels like to die
Goodbye, goodbye, time to fly
