Full Devil Jacket

Seven times down - I get up again
Seven times down - I get up again

Addiction
Addiction

I was standing on the edge of the fall
Looking to begin the end of it all
Found a key to the unopened door
The door, the door
My heart blackened by death and fear
The weight of drowning thirty six years
Back to the place I understood before
Before the war

Too much is never enough
Feeding the beast is killing me
Thrilling me
Three days to kick the sickness
Feeling it
God help me to get free
Too much is never enough
Feeding the beast is killing me
Thrilling me
Three days to kick the sickness
Feeling it
God help me to get free again
Get free again

In the mirror just a ghost and bones
Faded image of a broken home
So afraid I'm gonna die alone alone alone
My addiction bruised and punctured skin
Distortion running through my veins again
God only knows the man I could have been Before, before

Too much is never enough
Feeding the beast is killing me
Thrilling me
Three days to kick the sickness

Feeling it
God help me to get free
Too much is never enough
Feeding the beast is killing me
Thrilling me
Three days to kick the sickness
Feeling it
God help me to get free again
Get free again
Get free again

Seven times down - I get up again
Seven times down - I get up again
Seven times down - I get up again
Seven times down - I get up again

Seven times down - I get up again
Seven times down - I get up again
Seven times down - I get up again
Seven times down - I get up again

Feel the reaching of the healing hand
Keep from falling to my knees again
Seize the moment and I breathe it in again, again

Too much is never enough
Feeding the beast is killing me
Thrilling me
Three days to kick the sickness
Feeling it
God help me to get free
Too much is never enough
Feeding the beast is killing me
Thrilling me
Three days to kick the sickness
Feeling it
God help me to get free
Get free again
Get free again
God help me (God help me)
Get free again
