

To Ruin and the World's Ending

Full of Hell

To ruin and the world's ending
Countless souls blight marked at the end...
At the end of the line

I don't want to feel pain
It all feels the same now
Shallow dreams won't let me release
I can see it, total defeat

Behold ruin! Behold death!
Behold ruin and the world's ending

Behold our knight's ruin!
Though the earth give way
And the mountains crumble into the heart of the sea
Though the earth collapses
I will not forget you
