

Vacuous Dose

Full of Hell

Vessel reignited
A skeleton of coal
Ash to bone
An abandoned post

The mind will always betray the heart and soul
A body at rest - a derelict abandoned post
I call his name - no signal, no response
You can't take what's dead and convince it to grow

14 years are gone
A pale horse is shrieking
Memories are warped and tangled
Like scattered debris
Burning like matches
Rooms bending in
It's all bearing down
On a lake of tears

A pale horse is shrieking
An abandoned post
Sleep will never come
