

Don't Fight

Fun Factory

I don't wanna fight tonight what can we do to make it right?
Can it be a dream or is it reality? all the time when you start screaming my heard starts turning m heard starts bleeding I hope I wish I pray I'm only dreaming I don't wanna fight let's just do right want you by my side can't you understand? and now make sweet love to me you're ma fantasy you're the only one and you're my best friend I don't want no fight There's no more time for us to do it right Ain't no time for stress and violence all what we need is a place for silence when the phone rings I get nervous I don't think I'm the one who derseves this All I need is one more try wanna protect you like my own eyes no more tears no more hurtin' can't you feel that my soul is burning all what I want all what I want is peace for you girl I go down on my knees Don't wanna fight come on let's do this if we don't yo say srew Thistoo much stress too much mess girl I love you I must confess Straight up love is what I give you You're in my heard I breathe and live you so let's stop to fight let's star to love
'cause we fit together like a hand in glove stop fighting
I love you
