Dormant Hallucination

Skies open deep red Over a woeful cemetery The mausoleum's carnal altar Entranced into the dark

Penetrate the tomb Her apparition awaits Constrain the lustful spectre Into corporeal fornication

Obscured in lifeless pleasure The sanctum swathed in secretions Carnality and blood Seep from cold marble

Macabre evil spirit Release me from this life Through a dark, dripping ossuary Fog absorbs flesh and dissipates

Lost in a baleful aftermath My subconscious now entangled In a damned ghost's purgatory The paradise of flesh
