

Grey

Funeral for a Friend

A loss of feeling Ending in contempt
I feel like I am letting go of everything Friendships ending
Always in betrayal
You never gave us the benefit of the doubt
I saw you change throughout the years
I saw things begin to fall apart
Fuck your power games Nothing gold can stay like this forever it's faded grey Rusted like the dreams you hold so close Was it ever even true or was it all just a lie, you're a shadow of who you used to be.
