

54 Countries

Fuse ODG

Said she wanna go Africa
I said that's 54 countries
And every place different calibre
Different flavours tell me what you need
How far?
Hurry up I'm about to leave
Been in Babylon way too long
Gotta get that break that pedal and screech

Take shots at a Zanzibar
Chop mishkaki by the ocean beach
Konyagi with the locals
Take time 'cause it's stronger than a lion teeth
See an old volcano
Climb Kilimanjaro that's the highest peak
See the Pharaohs in Egypt
Tutankhamun and Ramesses
And when you see those statues
Staring at you you'll see we're the original Gs
Tun up at Great pyramid of Giza
Ancient wonders and Dynasties

Said she wanna go Africa
I said, "That's 54 countries."
And every place different calibre
Different flavours tell me what you need
How far?
Hurry up I'm about to leave

We can go to Zimbabwe see how the waterfall into the Zambezi
Picnic in the safari
Then drive through Jacaranda trees
Snorkeling at Seychelles
Crystal-clear ocean you can see those reefs
Feel the waters on your feet
Seychellois got the cleanest beach
And when we touchdown Accra
You go dey like rah can I get some two-hour sleep?
'Cause everywhere lit like Christmas tree
My area code plus 233

Said she wanna go Africa
I said, "That's 54 countries."
And every place different calibre
Different flavours tell me what you need
How far?

I got plugs in North
Then plugs in South
And more plugs in East West Raaaa
I got plugs in North
Then plugs in South

And more plugs in East West Raaaa
Raa raa rah
It's Fuse
Ay!
Said it's a worldwide movement
Raa raa raaaa

Camel riding from the Sahara
To Marrakesh watch the sunset bleed
Dance with the Masai in Nairobi
Swim with the Dolphins in Mozambique
Hit Kampala no wahala
Chop Ugali and feast
Monday to Monday the turn up's peak
They don't know any difference to the end of week

Or we can turn up in Lagos or maybe Abuja
Where we can get some peace
See things that you won't believe
Don't believe everything that you watch and read

Said she wanna go Africa
I said, "That's 54 countries."
And every place different calibre
Different flavours tell me what you need
