

December in GH

Fuse ODG

Get ready we're stepping out
What time is it?
10
Uh

The party's on
The night is young
Take your time
Too early to be getting drunk
Seen this gyal
With a silly bum
Her body's worth more than a million

Mandem posted up like it be Instagram
They're just happy to be outside it's been too long
But don't make them switch like the TV on
We just wanna party and bullshit like a Biggie song

Just here for a good time
Raa raa raah
Make I keep going

All I heard was shots shots
VIP like a gang on a opp block
Everybody taking shots till they drop drop
And the night still going now 4 of the clock

Fine gyal wanna give me the nana
Said her name is Nana
Spending December in Ghana
Said she wanna extend 'cause she came from Atlanta
Pulled up with her best friend who's Zimbabwe and Shona

Hmm it's only right dem dey wine to celebrate
Heavenly vibes when I'm chilling with hell of babes
Red Gold Green on her body so delicate
Let me hold that flag 'cause I'm proud of my heritage

Haha sexy, I'm a proud Ghanaian chale haha
Raa raa rah
Alright keep going

One wine she gave me one wine
Sexy gyal with the body she just wanna unwind
She no wanna go home she needed the sunshine
Told me London too cold been in Ghana long time

A long time she no feel herself
Girl you look too fresh to be put on the shelf
I see the motherland glow got you feeling yourself
Being in Babylon is bad for your health ha ha ha ha ha
And your body like an Island
Make I spoil you I go buy you land
Huh that's how we ball in motherland
Time goes fast when enjoying and having fun

It's 7 AM in Accra

We still going
Shit I know a spot we can pull up to

Breakfast with Queens and Kings
We make great plans we be scheming tings
We only concerned with achieving wins
Don't wanna live in Babylon with a ceiling
Relocate where the sky's the limit
This lounge so fly make Dubai look a gimmick
The level too high like my brother just bill it
We ain't concerned about you guys we busy buying up villas
I'm finished

Look at the date today
It's January 21st
If you go to Ghana in December
And you are still there
We don't care what's you're dong
Just come back
The cold is waiting for you
