

Dreamstate

Future Palace

I'm magnetically attracted to my bed (to my bed)
I can't get up, I'm just like frozen, I feel upset (I feel upset)

I feel so numb, I feel so drained
No motivation, no dopamine
What's the point of staying here?

I'm in a deep sleep
Where nobody needs me
A different space, full of grace
So much safety in this silence
I'm in a dreamstate
For once I don't feel so afraid
Where all this weight is gone
Nobody's gonna wake me up
Nobody's gonna wake me up
Nobody's gonna wake me up

I feel so empty, I can't cry
And my best friend is the night
Sometimes every feeling hits
All these feelings that I miss
Happiness just lasts for seconds
Then I feel just like a wreck again

I am angry, I'm upset
How am I still not happy yet

I'm in a deep sleep
Where nobody needs me
A different space, full of grace
So much safety in this silence
I'm in a dreamstate
For once I don't feel so afraid
Where all this weight is gone
Nobody's gonna wake me up
Nobody's gonna wake me up
Nobody's gonna wake me up

If I said I'm doing better now
I'd be lying to your face
I've been through so much coldness
Now I'm left feeling disgrace
I wish that I was stronger now
I already gave my best
It's so hard to find some faith these days
Barely any power's left

If these thoughts would just shut down
I feel angry and alone
I feel angry and alone
I feel so angry and alone

I'm in a deep sleep
Where nobody needs me
I'm in a dreamstate
For once I don't feel so afraid

Where all this weight is gone
Nobody's gonna wake me up

I'm in a deep sleep
Where nobody needs me (Nobody's gonna wake me up)
A different space, full of grace
So much safety in this silence
I'm in a dreamstate
For once I don't feel so afraid
Where all this weight is gone
Nobody's gonna wake me up
Nobody's gonna wake me up
Nobody's gonna wake me up
